1. Attached for your information and comment is a paper dated 25 July which represents the DD/S position relative to the Task Force. Having received this paper on 15 August, I have been unable to check on the DD/P reaction to it. However, I plan to do so and to see [redacted] and discuss the background material which was used as a basis for its preparation.

2. The following are some of the implications which would apply to OTR:

Participation in the development of plans and the planning group.

Training requirements for DD/S and DD/P personnel.

Membership and qualifications of the Headquarters and field personnel on stand-by lists.

Membership of senior OTR personnel on key-position lists.

Timely production of training materials.

Possible establishment or expansion of suitable facilities [redacted] for: training activities, mobilization exercises, holding and staging area.
